NATIVE AMERICAN

PROTESTANT ADVOCATE. 18 now receiving a large and choice assortment of Gro-It is proposed to publish in the City of Jackson, u semimonthly periodical under the above title, in pamphlet form, each number containing about thirry-two pages.
The struggle between Native Americanism and the donululon of Foreigners, between Popery and Protestantism, is in its infancy. It must be continued until foreign influence und Popery shall have crushed Democracy and the freedom of consclence, or Democracy and the right to worship God according to the illetates of the conscience of each man und wousan shall be fluelly seenered.
Luther and his associates went through a fearful struggle to achieve the reformation. We are now engaged in the same struggle, to continue and confirm to man, political and religious liberty. We have been as men in funcied security, sleeping uround a volcano, the lava silently rising and about to overwhelm them before they are conscious of the impending danger. Securely reposing in the enjoyment of our political and religious treedom, popery and foreigners have silently gained strength, until those who have investigated the subject see that the danger must be averted, now, or never. A few years popery and foreigners have silently gained strength, until those who have investigated the subject see that the danger must be averted, now, or never. A few years more of inactivity and all is lost. We wish to urouse the people from this dangerous apathy, by laying before them well unthenticated facts, whereby each individual ean judge for himself. We propose to nvoid everything but calm, decorous and fair reasoning from true premises, and to place before the community the materials, with pupuritality:—facts as they are and have been, with the evidences of their authenticity.

The periodical will be edited gratuitously by a committee composed alike of Democrats and Whigs, and of christians of each sect in our country, that the public may have assurance, that it is fairly and impartially conducted. The price, Two Dollars per unnuns, payable on the dolivery of the first number, which will issue so soon as one thousand subscribers are obtained, and the names forwarded. If a surplus fund remain, it will be approated to distribute grautitously amongst the folges, papers for circulation. Act promptly, friends of freedom, and forward subscriptions, directed to "The Executive Committee of American Party." Jackson, Miss.

J. C. Ayer. Dear Sir,—My little son, four years old has just recovered from a severe attack of undignant Scarlet Fever, his throat was rotten, and every person that visited him, prononneed him u dend child. Having used your Cherry Pettoral in California, in the winter of 1850, for a severe attack of Bronchilis, with cutire success, I was induced to try it on my little hoy. I gave him a tea-spoon-foll every three hours, commencing in the morning, and by ten o'clock at night. I found a derided change for the better, and after three days use, he was able to eat or drink without pain.

Its use in the above named disease will save many a fold from a premature grave, and relove the anxiety of many a fond parent. For all affections of the Turoat and langes, I believe it the best medicine extant. A feeling of the obsepted gratitude, prompts me in addressing you those lines,—but for your important discovery, my little how would now have been in another world.

TMIIS is one of the largest and most elaborate works of the kind in the world.

Rural Architecture forms one of the principal features. Each tamber contains from two to four engravings of model cottages, from designs by entinent and skilful architects. Space is also assigned to the tasteful art of Laudscape Gardening; engraved plans of gardens in every style, and adapted to the peculiarities of different orders of architecture, beautify the work.

Engravings of new fruits, new flowers, new vegetables, etc., are illustrated and described as soon as their respective qualities can be determined, forming the most complete and elegant Manual of Rural Husbandry ever attempted.

An experienced corps of practical writers, seven in number, are engaged to fill its columns.

It contains seventy large pages, and is printed on the finest pearl-surfuced paper, manufactured expressly.
